

WHAT isa
DEGREE
PROGRAM IN
LONDON
OR READING
IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

[ Reading is located about
36 miles west of London ]

University of Reading

- Traditional U.S. style campus in suburban area
- Student population: 17,000
- Only 30 minute train ride to London
- AACSB accredited
- Academic Highlights: Business, Sciences, Environment Studies, & Liberal Arts

Kingston University

- Traditional U.S. style campus in suburban area
- Student population: 22,000
- Over 1,300 modules in 30 subjects
- Engineering in Aerospace, Civil & Mechanical
- Academic Highlights: Art Design, Business, Social & Life Sciences

Queen Mary,
University of London

- University campus in an urban area
- Student Population: 17,000
- Great for students needing courses in many different areas
- Engineering in Aerospace, Biomedical, Electronic & Mechanical
- Academic Highlights: Arts, Sciences, Communication & Management

University of Westminster

- Centrally located urban campus
- Student population: 24,000
- Offers semester academic internships
- Practical courses in Media, Design, Photography & Fashion
- Academic highlights: Business, Liberal Arts

University of Roehampton

- Traditional U.S. style campus in suburban area
- Student population: 9,000
- Offers spring only internships in Media and Culture
- Courses in Dance, Exercise & Health Sciences & Performing Arts
- Academic Highlights: Business, Biology, Liberal Arts, & Psychology

King's College London

- Centrally located urban campus
- Student population: 25,000
- Offers spring only internships
- Prestigious university ranked in the top 30 in the world
- Academic Highlights: Biomedical Sciences, Humanities and Liberal Arts